

South Camden Theatre Company Opens its Seventh Season with Suddenly Last Summer by Tennessee Williams

Production Will Open October 21 and Run Through November 6 on Fridays and Saturdays at 8p.m. and Sundays at 2p.m.

CAMDEN, NJ — October 3, 2011 — The South Camden Theatre Company, a nonprofit professional theatre organization located in Camden, New Jersey opens its seventh season titled “Tenn X Ten” featuring works written by and inspired by Tennessee Williams in celebration of the centennial of his birth. A three-week production of “Suddenly Last Summer” written by Tennessee Williams and directed by Connie Norwood begins the 2011-2012 season opening Friday October 21, 2011 at 8 p.m.

Founder and Producing Artistic Director Joseph M. Paprzycki states, “South Camden Theatre Company is the only theatre in the United States that chose to honor Tennessee Williams’s centennial with an entire season of his work, and we are excited to bring his plays to our audience. Additionally we are proud to highlight award-winning local Camden artist Brother Mickey O’Neill McGrath who painted four original works of art that appear as the poster image for each production this season.” Director Connie Norwood adds, “What lengths people go through to hide the truth are a familiar theme in Tennessee’s work and front and center in ‘Suddenly Last Summer’.”

Performances will be held Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. and Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at the 96-seat Waterfront South Theatre located at 400 Jasper Street in Camden, New Jersey. Tickets and season passes are available for purchase for $15 online at <http://www.southcamdentheatre.org>, by calling 1-866-811-4111 or at the door.
